

Channeled Resources is growing and we need people who want to grow with us. Our family business started in 1978 as recyclers of specialty papers and films. Our company has evolved in the last decade and now includes 3 manufacturing divisions. While we've grown significantly, we have maintained the original family business work environment. If you like to work where the president's office door is always open and individual employee growth always encouraged, you will fit right in.

Our Marathon location is in search of a Summer General Labor/Floater to assist with the wrapping and banding our our product. We are looking for eager individuals that are willing to learn the business and processes to become a valued member of our team.
